TIME SCHEDULE
OAP workshop 2012
Materiality and Space in Management and Organization Studies
10-11th May 2012, Paris, La Défense
Université Paris-Dauphine

Department of Management

Social Study of Information and Communications Technologies
2012

Thursday 10th May 2012

13.30-15.00	Registration (Dauphine's Campus at la Defense)
15.00-15.30	Amphitheatre: Welcome talk by Nathalie Mitev (LSE), François-Xavier de Vaujany (Université Paris-Dauphine) and Arnaud Raynouard (Université Paris-Dauphine)
15.30-16.30	Opening Keynote 1 (Amphitheatre G, rue Basse) "Mangle of practices", Professor Andrew Pickering (University of Exeter)
16.30-18.30	Parallel session 1 (Room E 260) Knowledge and sociomateriality Track chair: Nathalie Mitev (LSE) Sociomateriality at the Boundary (Object): extended knowledge and the crowd (TanjaAitamurto, Stanford University, Ingrid Erickson, Cornell University, Marc J. Ventresca, Oxford University) Performing Knowledge: The Constitutive Role of Materiality in Rating and Ranking Practices (Susan Scott, LSE and Wanda Orlikowski, MIT) Sociomaterial entanglement in virtual spaces: knowledge creation practice in online platforms (LÊ Patrick Lâm, HEC Paris) Sociomateriality: new vocabulary or reformulation of existing theories? (KarlheinzKautz, Tina Blegind Jensen, Copenhagen Business School)	Parallel session 2 (Room E252) Identity, culture and material space Track chair: Jean-François Chanlat (DRM-Dauphine) Crystal Image: Rethinking Difference, Repetition & Materiality (Chris McLean, Manchester Business School) Sociomateriality and professional identity: an underexplored relationship? (Pierre Laniray, DRM-Dauphine) The price of organising Culture: On the limits of economic guidance within government (Dave O'Brien, City University) Controling Managers 'Becoming'? The Practices of Identity Regulation (StéphanPezé, DRM-Dauphine)
20.30	Social event 1. Walk in Paris and 'bâteaux-mouches' at the quai de Seine

Friday 11th May 2012

9h-10h	Keynote 2 (Amphitheatre G, rue Basse) "Mundane Objects And The Banality Of Evil: The Sociomateriality Of A Death Camp", Professor Stewart Clegg (UTS, Australia)
10h-10h30	Break
10h30-12h30	Parallel session 3 (Room E 260): Architecture, time and space in organizations Track chair: Magda Hercheui (Westminster university) Exploring Digitalization of Architectural Design Practice through Ecologies of Affordances (Aron Lindberg, Case Western University, KalleLyytinen, Case Western University, James Gaskin, Case Western University, YoungjinYoo, Temple University, VeereshThummadi, Case Western University) Management systems as organizational "architectures" The chronotope (time-space frame) of organizing (Philippe Lorino, ESSEC Paris) When material space becomes organizational space: a "space-based" coordination to deal with volatile and recurring problems of urban incivility (Nathalie Raulet-Croset, CRG EcolePolytechnique) Mobile information systems and	Parallel session 4 (Room E252): Traces, footprints and materiality Track chair: VasilikiBaka (LSE) Mobilizing sociomaterial properties of open source software to reconfigure organizational dynamics: an activity-theoretical analysis of co-configuration practices (Claudine Bonneau, UQUAM) An institutional perspective on corporate reputation: the consequences of electronic footprints (Hélène Lambrix, DRM-Dauphine, François-Xavier de Vaujany, DRM-Dauphine) How Sociomateriality and Institutions Entangle: A Case Study of End-User Communities and Internet Infrastructure Development (AljonaZorina, ESSEC Business School, David Avison, ESSEC Business School)	Parallel session 5 (Room E 253): IS, practice and materiality Track chair: François-Xavier de Vaujany (Université Paris-Dauphine) Technology as Space of Interaction: A Study of Resistance and Subversion (Pablo Fernandez, EM Lyon, Bernard Forgues, EM Lyon) Boundary objects: technology in the creative construction of electronic business (Alan Lowe, Joanne Locke, Aston Business School) ERP-in-use: from GLOBAL control to local enacted workarounds: a practice-based study from a multinational firm (JulienMalaurent, EM Lyon and David Avison, ESSEC Business School) IS as a spatial practice: A call for a spatial turn in MIS research (François-Xavier de Vaujany, DRM-Dauphine, Emmanuelle Vaast, McGill University)	Parallel session 6 (room E266): Coordination across space and materiality Track chair: VladislavFomin (Vytaugnas university) Fashion-enacting industry: Coordination among actors within Prêt-à-Porter sector through sociomaterial practices (Vanessa Warnier and Xavier Lecocq, IAE de Lille) Virtual space as agency cost minimizer (KseniyaNavazhylava, HEC Paris) The role of material space in coworking spaces hosting entrepreneurs: the case of the Beehive in Paris (Julie Fabbri, Florence Charue-Duboc, CRG EcolePolytechnique) In/different spaces – the permanence of space in media work (LottaHäkkinen, University of Turku, Nina Kivinen, ÅboAkademi

	organizational control: beyond panopticon? (AurélieLeclercq-Vandelannoitte, IESEG	The hard side of climate change: local materializations and space re-organizing (Silvia Bruzzone, CNRS)		University)
12h30-14h	Lunchtime
14.00-15.00	Keynote 3 (Amphitheatre G, rue Basse) "Mobile lives", Professor John Urry (Lancaster University, UK)
15h00-15h30	Break
15h30-18h30	Parallel session 7 (Room E 252): Design, innovation and materiality Track chair: WifakGueddana (LSE) The Becoming of Agency: Version Control Use in Open Source (MahaShaikh, LSE and Warwick Business School) Co-evolution of design and use: the role of material artifacts (Amandine Pascal, Université Aix-Marseille, Catherine Thomas, Université de Nice) A biography of software development: OSS for microfinance (WifakHouijGueddana, LSE)	Parallel session 8 (Room E 253): Everyday materiality in and outside organizations Track chair: Nuno Oliveira (LSE) Bachelard's poetics and the study of materiality in organizations (Michele Charbonneau, EcoleNationaled'Administration) Space, Materiality and food (Yochanan Altman, London Metropolitan Business School) Understanding organization design emergence from experience: the concept of Experiential Organization Design (Richard Baskerville, GSU and Anthony Hussenot, DRM-Dauphine) Exploring how the signification of a practice is constructed: the appraisal process viewed through its sociomaterial dimensions (JocelyneYalenios, IAE de Lyon)	Parallel session 9 (Room E 260): Learning and demateriality Track chair: Michel Kalika (DRM-Dauphine) Constraint and opportunities: The use of space by employees' to complete their e-learning program (Bhumika Gupta, Emmanuel Baudoin, Telecom Management) E-journal system in Lithuanian school: exploratory study of the changing organizational conduct (VladislavFomin and GiedrêČesonytėVytaugnas University) Demateriality: Social Mutation and Managerial Challenges (Anne-Sophie Binninger, Eric Fimbel and Catherine Karyotis, Reims Management School)	Parallel session 10 (Room E 266): Public organizations, emergency and materiality Track chair: AnouckAdrot (Télécom Management) The emergence of organizational entanglement: An illustration from the 2003 French heat wave crisis (AnouckAdrot, Telecom Management Paris and Anthony Hussenot, DRM-Dauphine) Organizing risk communication in emergency management (Nicholas B. de Weydenthal, Office of environmental programs) Unraveling the digitalization of Norwegian municipalities (Lucia Liste Muñoz Department of Interdisciplinary Studies of Culture Norwegian University of Science and Technology)

18.30 19.30	Concluding keynote: Prof Dick Boland (Case Western Reserve University) and Prof Lucas Introna (Lancaster University).
21h00-22h30	Social event 2: a selection of restaurants and 'bistrots' in Paris.